Social time

List people you plan to socialise with while you are home learning:

1 Family
2
3
4
5

1 Friends
2
3
4
5

1 Others
2
3
Here are some examples of how we can socialise during home learning.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Phone</th>
<th>Text</th>
<th>Email</th>
<th>Zoom</th>
<th>Face time</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Skype</td>
<td>Twitter</td>
<td>Whatsapp</td>
<td>Facebook</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Choose up to 3 ways that you will socialise with family and friends during home learning.
Copy your ways of socialising. Who will you socialise with in these ways?

Way of socialising

Who will I socialise with this way?

Why not add "social time" to your weekly timetable?

You can use "social time" to socialise with friends and family.
Circle 5 social activities you could do at home during home learning?

- Board games
- Puzzles
- Card games
- Group Lego project
- Group yoga
- Group dance (e.g. Just Dance)
- Group drama (e.g. role play)
- Group crafts
- Watch a film together
- Baking together
- Playing with toys or figures
- Group gaming
- Hide and seek
- Shared reading
- Treasure hunt
- Group exercise
- I Spy
- Karaoke
- Indoor planting
- Charades
- Other:
- Other:
- Other:
- Other:
Write or draw social activities on each face of a dice.

Roll the dice to choose an activity.
Challenge: Try 3 new social activities.

Today I tried:

Date:

Why not add "social time" to your weekly timetable?

You can use "social time" to do social activities.